

Bill Young

Bill Young joined Station Casinos, Inc. in March 2007 and currently serves as Senior Vice President of Compliance and Security, responsible for 600 team members in at 16 locations.

The former Sheriff of Clark County from January 2003 to January 2007, Bill was responsible for the public safety of Clark County and the City of Las Vegas (7800 square miles), 2 million residents with 43 million tourists annually. As CEO of the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department, Bill was responsible for over 5000 employees and an operating budget of $500 million.

Bill's career in law enforcement spanned 28 years.

Bill held the following positions within the Metro Police Department from 1979 to 2003: Deputy Chief Special Operations Division, Deputy Chief Detention Services Division, Captain Support Services Bureau, overseeing Air-Support, Search and Rescue, SWAT, Canine, and Resident Officer Program, Lieutenant Vice-Narcotics Bureau, Lieutenant Communications Bureau, Lieutenant Patrol Bureau. SWAT Sergeant- Special Weapons and Tactics Team Leader, Patrol Sergeant- Field Training Program, Patrol Sergeant, Patrol Field Training Officer and Patrol officer.

Graduating with a B.A. in Criminal Justice from University of Nevada Las Vegas, Bill also has a M.S. in Crisis and Emergency Management from the University of Nevada Las Vegas; is a graduate of the Southern Police Institute at the University of Louisville 1986; FBI National Academy, Quantico, Virginia, class 203-2 and FBI National Executive Institute, Quantico Virginia.

Bill's professional affiliations include : Major Cities Chiefs Association, National Sheriffs Association, Police Executive Research Forum, and the International Association of Chiefs of Police. He also is a member of the American Gaming Associations Advisory Board for Illegal Gambling. He serves on the Boards of Directors of several organizations including "Hope for Prisoners", "Las Vegas After School All Stars and "Nevada Child Seekers".

